Brief personal statement describing how attending this conference can benefit you, your district, and/or increase your engagement in natural resource conservation in Idaho.

Craft a statement describing what you expect to see at your first IASCD conference, and how you are working to increase supervisor engagement and participation within your soil conservation district.

Scholarship Application Policies

This scholarship is open to any soil conservation district supervisor who has never attended the annual business meeting of the Idaho Association of Soil Conservation Districts (IASCD). The IASCD Board of Directors will review each application and select one supervisor per division, and cover conference registration. Conference registration covers entry into all conference events and conference meals. Scholarship winners are required to stay at the Red Lion Templin's and are responsible for their room, board, and travel.

Scholarship applications must be received by October 26, 2018, and sent via fax, email, or mail. No applications will be accepted after this deadline. Please note that any application sent via USPS needs to be postmarked prior to October 26, 2018. Recipients of the scholarship will be notified by phone the week of the October 29.
